INSPIRING

STRAIGHT-TALKING

PRACTICAL

In this series of free webinars our team of literacy consultants, who work day-in-day-out with teachers, bring you their insights into what works when teaching synthetic phonics. Join them to learn how to get going, best practice and what really works in your classroom – teacher to teacher.

Ready to Roll with Synthetic Phonics – Jo-Anne Dooner

Jo-Anne Dooner's top tips for starting a synthetic phonics program.

6pm: 13th February, 15th

March or 26th April 2012

- How synthetic phonics has your Kindy/Prep students surpassing the Year 1 National Curriculum standards
- The synthetic phonics scope and sequence explained
- The plan to catch-up the older years, quickly
- How to create a culture where zero reading failure is the goal
- Get parents onboard and supporting your classroom work

Strong Pre-Reading Foundations – Jo-Anne Dooner

Phonemic and phonological awareness have been proven to be the biggest indicator of future reading success. Ensure you have laid these foundations.

6pm: 9th February 2012

- Phonological and phonemic awareness – what's the difference? And does it really matter?
- How long to teach phonemic awareness before starting synthetic phonics
- Some of my children are ready to move into synthetic phonics, but half aren't. What next?

Teaching the Advanced Code – Anne Ross

Moving from the basic code to the advanced code can feel daunting but the advanced code is critical to improve children's spelling. This is the time they learn how to make spelling choices.

6pm: 23rd February 2012

- The advanced code explained
- How to get on top of your teaching
- What if children aren't picking it up
- The code overlap explained

Guided Reading with Synthetic Phonics – Jo-Anne Dooner

The more practice and consolidation you can give, the stronger phonics skills will be. Guided reading is the ideal way to embed phonics skills.

6pm: 3rd May 2012

- What is guided reading
- How to use decodable stories
- How to assess during guided reading
